COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

Extra Prizes Awarded by the Parade Committee.

At a meeting of the Parade Committee of the Fourth of July celebration last night, extra prizes for meritorious exhibits were awarded as follows: W. W. Diamond, best advertising float, $10; Dave Crozier, decorated wheel, $2.50; Tom McGuire, goat cart, $7.50; Kawahonani, decorated wheel, $2.50.

At a meeting of the General Committee held afterwards, the appeal of Captain McCauley from the decision of the judges in the whaleboat race was read and referred to the Rowing Association for adjudication.

On motion of Col. Fisher it was decided that the committee continue as an organization until the called citizens' meeting next year.

J. A. Kennedy, from the Committee of Fireworks, was authorized to expend the balance of the money on hand in time to secure a supply of fireworks from the Coast for next year's celebration.

There seems to be some blight affecting the bloom of the beautiful Punciana Regia this season, for of all the trees in the city but few have blossoms enough to attract attention. The one on Hotel street next to the Arlington is a notable exception, and in consequence is a source of wonder and delight to visitors who have never before seen this tree in bloom. King Bros. have made several excellent sketches in oil and water colors of this subject, which are meeting with ready sale.

CHANGES AT KAMEHAMEHA.

Handicraft Moralizes on the Evanescent Tenure of Teachers.

Handicraft, the journal of Kamehameha Schools, for June contains the following editorial and news:

The "ceaseless law of change" is commonplace enough with or without Evolution,—so called. The progress involved in specific stages of change does not always show on any one year of surface. Probably the backward steps, as we interpret them, are really essential to progress. So it may be with the ever-recurring providence of change in our teaching force. We can hardly be expected to rejoice when two successive years hardly find us with the same set of teachers. It would be weak for us to attempt to give reasons for this fact and would look like a local apology: it is all too universal throughout the Islands. It has been humorously suggested that the only safe anchorage for teachers in a foreign land lies in matrimony, which in its turn, does not, unfortunately, always lie in expediency.

Mrs. S. J. Andrew, whose services as matron cover a period longer than that of any one now at Kamehameha, leaves this June. What she has done for boys and teachers during that time would fill a volume of Kamehameha's most vital statistics—never likely to come to light through her instrumentality, yet none the less enduring in the hearts of those for whom she worked. Now that ill health has forced her resignation the sorrow is as real and universal as it is natural among the Hawaiian boys to whom she has found it her pleasure to be a mother—firm and unruled, wise and warm-hearted. Her successor is not yet appointed.

Mr. R. B. Anderson, who leaves to pursue a course of medicine in an Eastern university, has been with us nearly five years. During this time his rare energy has displayed itself unremittingly in various departments of the school. As school registrar and instructor in mathematics he closes his faithful services at Kamehameha. His successor will be Mr. Arthur A. Macurda of Brown University.

Miss A. S. Snow leaves for her home in Mass. after a service of three years in her present position. A businesslike preciseness in the conduct of the faculty "minutes" and a conscientious attendance upon school duties serve to characterize her work at the school. Her successor, Mrs. Flora E. Wolfenden (in all probability), a graduate of Chicago Music College and late of McMinville, Ont., will teach music at Kamehameha besides other branches.

Mr. F. W. Maby, a graduate of Kamehameha in the class of '94, who has been an assistant instructor to Mr. Lyman in various mechanical lines, goes to pursue his studies in Pratt Institute, Brooklyn. Mr. Maby's growth and industry have won him the respect of teachers and students alike. His own frugality enables him to take this step and he will carry with him the hopes, nay the expectations, of all for his success.

Singers lead the world. Over 13,000,000 made and sold. Highest awards at the World's Columbian Exposition for excellence of construction, regularity of motion, ease of motion, great speed, adjustability, durability, ease of learning and convenience of arrangement. B. Bergersen, agent, King and Bethel streets.

"The way of the transgressor is hard," but the man who drinks plenty of Seattle beer at the Criterion will lose all desire to transgress the laws.
